The reserve champion steer was shown by George Danyluk for the Lakeland Meat Processors banner. Heinsburg says farewell to the Class of '97

Heinsburg Community School saluted the Class of '97 at their Farewell Ceremonies on Friday, May 30. Members of the class are Melissa Krider, Leslie Callioux, Jamie Sharkey, Robert Laboucane, Jason Goulet, Faron Fayant, Marty Bendixen and Arden Barstad.

The evening started with a sumptuous banquet in the community hall, at which Jason Goulet offered grace. Following the meal, Melissa Krider gave the toast, "What are parents?" with the reply coming from Rock Sharkey, who said "we want you to know how proud we are." Jason Goulet toasted the staff, thanking them for their efforts throughout the year, with Cathy Botting replying with congratulations to the "new ambassadors from Heinsburg School — make us proud."

The ceremonies continued in the school gym, with principal Lorne Young as Master of Ceremonies. Faron Fayant gave the invocation.

Jamie Sharkey continued the lengthy tradition of passing on the school colors, presenting the framed document to Grade 11 student Erna Delorme.

Monique Garnier gave the history of the graduands, who were her first Grade 7 class when she came to Heinsburg. "Treasure your memories," she advised them, "and continue to live on the edge of your dreams."

Carmen Brodziak, Assistant Superintendent of St. Paul Education Regional Division #1, presented each graduand with a scroll, and said that finishing high school "is not only your dream but that of your parents and your teachers." She told the class, "there are all kinds of possibilities out there... you have a lot of dreams that will become reality." Ms. Brodziak commented that she always enjoyed coming to Heinsburg for the farewell ceremonies, because "it really is a special place to be."

Former Heinsburg student Daleen Gunderson entertained with a vocal solo, "Letting Go."

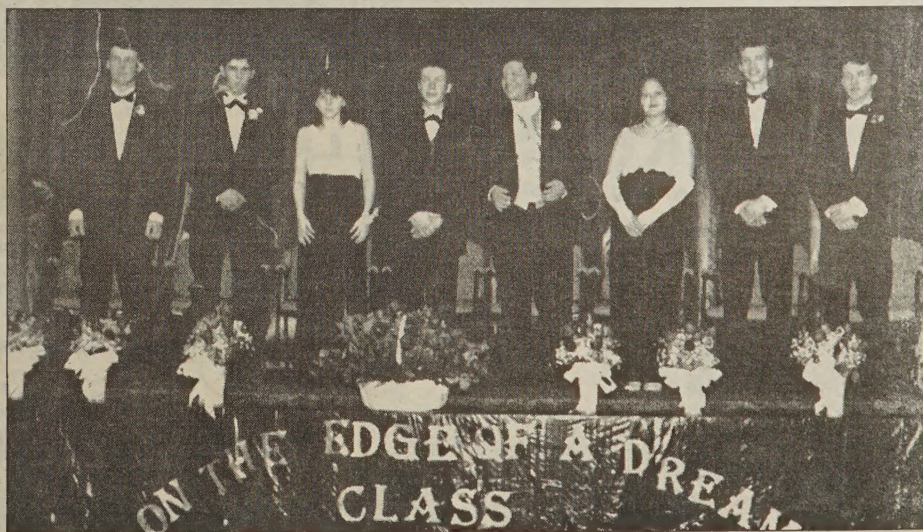

Valedictorian Melissa Krider likened life to "a mountain range. Today is one of those peaks." She said that the class members' parents "were there all the way... and the teachers helped us over the rough spots." She said that Grade 12 has been "one of the best and

Reform MP Leon Benoit wins by a landslide

By Rhonda Noyce
Staff Writer

As the results from the new Lakeland riding came pouring in last night, it was clear that Leon Benoit was the victor and the new MP for the constituency.

"I am thrilled," Benoit said from his campaign office in St. Paul Monday night. "It was a good campaign and it feels even better being re-elected than first being elected. It shows that people think I have done a good enough job, to support the Reform party."

Benoit was the former MP for the Vegreville constituency and was elected for the first time during the 1993 federal election. When the Beaver River and Vegreville ridings were amalgamated, Reform MP Deborah Grey decided to run in the Edmonton North riding, leaving the new Lakeland riding wide open for the Benoit.

"It was very difficult for me this time, because half of the constituency I represented and half of the constituency Deb represented. I had to earn the support from the old Beaver River constituency, and there are a lot of people out here who need to take credit."

As for the news of the Reform party taking official opposition in the House of Commons, Benoit said it is proof that they are making progress as a party and that Canadians are saying yes to Reform instead of saying no to the Tories as in the previous election.

Benoit said he was disappointed by the lack of support for Reform in eastern Canada.

"It was obvious that our votes were split between the Conservatives, but with our official opposition status, it will give us a chance to put our platform forward."

The new MP for Lakeland said they are gearing up for a Reform government during the next election.

"The Liberals have never won three elections in a row and we thought it would take us one more election before we formed government

As official opposition Benoit said that Reform will be "controlling the national media agenda" by putting forth their ideas and their platform in Question Period.

"This will set us up to win the next election."

As what is next for the new MP, Benoit says he will continue to work hard on agriculture and interprovincial trade issues.

At press time on Monday evening, the race for second place between Liberal candidate Hansa Thalesvar and PC candidate Les Parsons was still on. Benoit was ahead with about 60 per cent of the votes with Thalesvar and Parsons far behind, fighting for about 20 per cent of the votes. NDP candidate John Williams was holding about four per cent of the votes, and with just over half of the poll results in, independent candidate Valerie Morrow was just under 160 votes.

Senior Citizens' Week is here!

By Deanna Easthope
FCSS Director

I would like to say "Happy Senior Citizens Week" to all our seniors. The first week of June is a happy time with all the beauty of spring in full force. Mother Nature is giving you her gift of spring blossoms and new birth. May this time of year bring all of you a feeling of renewed joy in your lives.

Our seniors have given us so much by the many good examples of their lives. They have seen, experienced and endured so many things. What they have gained from their experiences from living cannot be measured.

I enjoy talking to our seniors. Why, just last week, I learned from a senior person that she only received $8.00 a month at her first job, working for a family in their home. I learned from another senior person I was talking to that their first home was a granary. She was able to turn it into a home. Times were hard for these people, but they endured.

Our seniors have seen automobiles come into being, and the first airplanes. They have seen the radio developed from a little crystal with a "cat whisker" to tune it, to the beginning of the modern electronics world.

Regarding medicine, our seniors have seen "home remedies" change to antibiotics. They have also seen the travelling "country doctor" change from using his hands to detect a problem to our "modern doctors" with access to machines for their diagnosis.

Seniors: A great resource for our community

From these examples, one could say that our seniors have been able to see the whole picture of life. A real panoramic view.

There is a story told of a young married couple who took their two-year-old daughter on a small, rented boat ride on a lake. After rowing far from shore, they stopped far from shore to relax and enjoy the tranquil scene. Suddenly, their little toddler lifted one leg out of the boat and started to go overboard, exclaiming, "Time to get out, Daddy!" Quickly they caught her and explained: "No, dear, it's not time to get out; we must stay in the boat until it brings us safely back to land."

We could liken this story to our seniors, for they have endured, and because they can see the whole picture, we can learn from them.

Whatever our work may be, I am sure our seniors would tell us to endure at the beginning, endure through the opposition along the way, and endure to the end. Any job must be completed before you can enjoy the result for which you are working.

Thank you, seniors, for all the things you have taught us.

Nutrition notes

Feeling tired? Maybe you need more iron in your diet

By Shelly Miller-Hertes
Registered Dietician, Elk Point Health Centre

Iron deficiency is caused by:

- (1) inadequate dietary intake
- (2) decreased intestinal absorption
- (3) blood loss
- (4) increased requirements associated with menstruation, pregnancy and lactation, or infancy

These are some guidelines to help you increase your iron intake and absorption of iron.

- (1) Eat a good variety of foods so you obtain all the nutrients your body needs.
- (2) Choose meat, fish, and poultry as your main protein sources. They are high in iron.

The heme iron in these foods is absorbed twice as well as the non-heme iron in vegetables.

(3) Eat sources of heme iron and non-heme iron together. For example, if you eat chicken and broccoli together, the iron in the broccoli is absorbed better than if you eat the broccoli alone.

(4) Eat foods rich in vitamin C with your meals. Vitamin C-rich foods include strawberries, tomatoes, broccoli, citrus fruit and spinach. Vitamin C increases iron absorption.

(5) Add dried fruit to cereals, casseroles and desserts. Dried apricots, prunes, dates and raisins contain iron.

(6) Vegetarians need to take special care to eat enough iron-containing foods.

(7) Avoid coffee with meals and for one hour after meals. Coffee can decrease the absorption of non-heme iron.

(8) Use cast iron skillets and pots for cooking. Cooking with iron cookware, rather than stainless steel cookware, increases the iron content of foods.

(9) Read the nutrition labels on packaged foods such as breakfast cereals to determine the iron content. Choose products that provide a high iron content per serving.

Here is a list of iron-rich foods:

Liver, roast beef, tofu, baked beans, bran flakes with raisins, spinach, molasses (blackstrap), kidney beans.

Another reason to eat fruits and veggies

By the Registered Dieticians and Community Nutritionists
Lakeland Regional Health Authority

There is a lot of attention being directed to antioxidants and their benefits in the diet. The three most commonly discussed antioxidants are vitamin C, vitamin E and Beta Carotene. Antioxidants have been getting publicity for their role in attacking free radicals. Free radicals are unstable oxygen molecule that can cause tissue damage which can lead to disease (for example, cancer, heart disease) and aging. Free radicals enter the body from the environment, smoking, and are produced during normal bodily functions. Antioxidants neutralize free radicals so that they cannot cause any damage.

To make sure you are getting enough antioxidants, follow Canada's Food Guide to Healthy Eating. Canada's Food Guide emphasizes eating a variety of foods to help get all the nutrients our bodies need. It also emphasizes eating vegetables and fruits (minimum of 5 servings per day), especially dark green and orange fruits and vegetables that are rich in Beta Carotene. Enjoy citrus fruits, broccoli, green peppers, and strawberries for vitamin C. Unsaturated fats such as canola oil, corn oil, sunflower oil and other liquid oils are better sources of vitamin E than more solid types of fat. Be careful though, as too much fat in the diet can increase the chance of obesity, heart disease, some cancers and other health problems.

Try to get all the nutrients needed for good health from food sources first. Food provides a number of nutrients whereas a supplement may only provide one nutrient. Plus supplements may not have the same benefits as food because it is a combination of nutrients working together rather than just one nutrient that shows the health benefit. Many components of food are being discovered to have health benefits so having the minimum number of servings of vegetables and fruits will help make sure you are not missing out.

Report from the Legislature

By Paul Langevin
MLA, Lac La Biche - St. Paul

The 1997 "Think and Drive" Summer Campaign faced its first long weekend of the summer. This three-year Alberta Traffic Safety Initiative was launched in 1996. Its partners include approximately 30 traffic safety groups — including municipal police services and the RCMP, the Alberta Motor Association, the Alberta School Bus Contractors Association, the Alberta Student Transportation Advisory Council, People Against Impaired Driving (PAID), the trucking industry and other special interest partners who are working in a cooperative effort to deliver result-oriented programs that address traffic safety province-wide.

Now that the summer is finally upon us, there will be more traffic as residents and visitors fill the highways and roadways on the way to their favorite summer destinations. It is important that drivers remember to be aware of road conditions and other motorists, pedestrians, and cyclists. All too often our news is filled with automobile accidents involving injuries and fatalities. "It's everyone's responsibility" is the message as the Alberta Traffic Safety Initiative launches its "Think & Drive" summer campaign across the province.

You will soon begin to notice mobile electronic information boards along Highway 2 that have been strategically placed to increase safety awareness. In addition to the "Share the road" message, warning messages on road conditions, collision information, construction delays and general safety messages will also appear on the signs throughout the year. Please, as each of you venture out to enjoy the summer, remember to drive safely. Even one life is too precious to lose.

If you would like more information on the initiatives of "Think & Drive," please feel free to call me at 645-6999 or

THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE was this cherry red 1963 Mercury pickup, owned and lovingly restored by a very proud Brian Blanchard of Bonnyville.

Shining beauties displayed at Happy Daze Car Show

Eighteen gleaming vehicles lined Main Street, Elk Point on Saturday as the Elk Point Auto Club and Elk Point Chamber of Commerce presented their annual Happy Daze Classic Car Show. The public came, they admired and they voted, with the owners of the winning vehicles taking home a variety of awards.

The People's Choice award for the overall favorite went to a 1963 Mercury pickup owned by Brian Blanchard of Bonnyville. Blanchard said it took "about a year" to do the basic restoration on the cherry-red beauty, and "since then we've added something more every year." This was Blanchard's third year at the show with the truck, which also won first place in the Trucks category, for a trophy from Quality Tools. The People's Choice award was sponsored by Westside Muffler.

Second place in the Trucks category, with a trophy from B & D Industrial, went to Paige White of Elk Point, with a 1951 Chevy half ton.

The Antique category was won by two local favorites. Bob Lee's yellow 1929 DeSoto Roadster placed first for the Elk Point Auto Club trophy, and was also given the Elk Point Insurance and Realty trophy as the only convertible in the show and the Home Town Grocers plaque for the oldest vehicle on display. Larry Demchuk's 1933 Ford 5-window coupe was second for the Mystery Man trophy.

Top entry in the Post '60 Antiques was shown by Doug Lubinski, whose 1968 Camaro earned him the Shamrock Valley Enterprises trophy. Second place trophy from Dan's Auto Body went to many-time entrant Richard Meyenburg for his bright orange '68 Camaro. Meyenburg, who hails from Paynton SK, also received the "Furthest Away" plaque sponsored by Footprints Subs and Arcade.

Jeff Sweet of Lloydminster took top billing in the Show category, winning a trophy from Woody's Trophy and Gift for his dark teal '69 Mustang, while Ken Astill and family of Bonnyville were second with another all-time favorite, the 1975 Bricklin winning a trophy from Harold Lefebvre Construction.

In the Modified category, Ron Moneta's 1971 Plymouth GTX won him the Northern Valley Store trophy, while Dominic Brunel won the second place Lloydminster Heavy Crude trophy for his 1967 Mustang.

TRIPLE TREAT -- It's not often you get to gaze at three gleaming 1968 Camaros, all in a row, but we had just that this weekend. The centre one, owned by Doug Lubinski, won the Post '60 Antiques category, Richard Meyenburg's (right) was second.

ANTIQUE CATEGORY WINNERS were Bob Lee's DeSoto convertible (right) and Larry Demchuk's Ford coupe, both longtime favorites with Elk Point car show fans.

White Sox r-r rained out

By Doug Bassett
Elk Point Minor Ball

Another rainy day Sunday shut down the action for the midget White Sox after Cold Lake and Consort had travelled to Elk Point to play. Trying to make it happen, the teams took a two-hour rain delay, but without any improvement, the mini round robin was called off and the teams went home. One positive was that it was dry for the coach in the newly constructed Doug-outs!

White Sox did manage to play two game this past week, a home-and-home series with Bonnyville. Tuesday night the team had very little power left when they played in Bonnyville, after eight of the boys had played three games and lost in the B final of the County Cup. Then on Thursday, Bonnyville made a return trip and were given a much better effort. Down 7-4 after three innings, the powerful southpaw Greg Zarowny, who was called up from the Bantam team to show his stuff, came in to chuck the ball and shut down nine straight batters before allowing one hit. The final, 9 - 7 after 7 innings for Bonnyville.

Crusaders senior girls, junior boys win SPAA titles

F. G. Miller Crusaders brought home the St. Paul Athletic Association Senior Girls Fastball title Tuesday, after a 20 - 3 win over Vilna in the "A" side of the high school tournament held at the Elk Point Recreation Park.

Elk Point held a 4-2 lead going into the third inning, but added twelve consecutive runs, and sixteen in total, before going back into the field. Vilna added only one more run to their total before Elk Point was declared the winner.

Erica Nielsen and Andrea Myshaniuk each had one home run in their 3-point afternoon, while Felina Kinjerski added another three, Raegan Croteau, Charise Kinneberg and Christine Penz (each with a home run), and Jill West added two points each and Carrie Baumgardner, Jackie Penz and Krystal Yake added singles.

Elk Point defeated St. Paul Regional 11-8 and Vilna downed Mallaig 10-6 to reach the final.

In the "B" side of girls' action, Regional pounded Mallaig 20 - 2.

Senior Boys

Regional Saints outplayed Mallaig Stingers 18 - 4 to take the Senior Boys SPAA title. Regional coach Bob Palinka said "We got lucky," as his boys triumphantly paraded with the banner. Regional won their semifinal against Heinsburg 10-1, while Mallaig edged Vilna by a single point to reach the final.

In the "B" side, a very close final came down to the wire, with Ashmont defeating F. G. Miller Crusaders by a single point. Elk Point had held a four point lead going into the final inning, but Ashmont kept the bases loaded and brought in five more runs to win the game. Ashmont defeated Frog Lake 22 - 8 while FGM won over Poundmaker 23 - 6 in the semifinals.

Junior Champions

The SPAA Junior Championships were held at Whitney Lakes Ball Park on Wednesday, May 28. On the boys' side, the F. G. Miller Junior Crusaders took on Mallaig in the final, winning the banner by a 18 - 6 margin. Scott Swain was the top point getter, with three runs. Kihew Asiniy defeated Heinsburg 14 - 9 to take the "B" side.

Racette totally dominated their game for the Junior Girls title, defeating Glen Avon 15 - 0 with some excellent pitching from two Grade 8 students.

F. G. MILLER SENIOR GIRLS (above) and Junior Boys (below) were victorious at SPAA championship ball tournaments in Elk Point and Heinsburg this past week. Congratulations!

Rodeo rained out

Those who braved the rain clouds to head for Sunday's final go-round of the Elk Point Spring Classic Stampede made a steady stream of trucks and horse trailers heading out the gate. The Fairgrounds Committee made a regretful decision just before noon to cancel the performance.

Winners, decided on the results of Saturday's performance, were: Bareback: Cody McBride, with 74 on Hot Chocolate, with second going to Brad Nickason, 71 on Battle Saddle; Saddle Bronc: Dean Komant, with 70 on Warlord, Brad Hale second with 68 on Bay Boy; Bull Riding: Geoff Turnquist, 73 on Many Colors, and Brad Renton a close second at 72 on Boober; Junior Bulls: Levi Harbin, 68, Kyle Draney 60; Novice Riding: Travis Reay 66 on WolfGang, Jordan Liebel 61 on Bad Lands; Calf Roping: Daryn Knapp, 9.7, Lewis Mailer, 9.9; Steer Wrestling: Mike Gilbert 5.4, Shane Buksa 6.1; Team Roping: Robert and Shane Smith 6.3, Murray Linthicum and Rocky Dallyn, 6.4; Ladies Barrels: Kerri Meston 17.881, Patti Bowman 17.949 (Pam Veer was fourth with 17.968); Jr. Barrels: Marcie Rajewski 18.180, Sayward Russel 18.229.

Heinsburg says farewell and most entertaining years" of her school career, and that she and her classmates have enjoyed having a new friend with them this year. Now, she feels, "we can handle any rock-slide life can put before us."

Heinsburg has students attending from three communities, Heinsburg, Frog Lake and Fishing Lake. Charlie Thomson spoke on behalf of the Heinsburg Community Club, and told the students to "always remember to keep in touch with home... you're always welcome back here." He presented gifts from the Community Club to each graduand. Tokens of appreciation also came from MP Deborah Grey, who was unable to attend due to the election campaign.

Guest speaker was former Heinsburg principal Laverne Wilson, who put the Class of '97 at ease by introducing many of their parents as members of previous graduating classes, and giving his recollections of them at that time. He told the graduands they are "the youth of our country, our community. Take stock of yourself," he advised, "list your strengths, your weaknesses, your talents and interests before deciding what to be." He reminded them to have fun and to balance work, play, sports and other interests in order to become "the real you with a satisfactory lifestyle of an adult." Commenting on the number of former students he meets each day on his way to his job as principal at Frog Lake, he told the class that opportunities in many job fields are available locally. "Your dream is right before you. Go beyond and seize the opportunity, right here in your back yard."

Shelly Dyck, representing the St. Paul Regional Board of Education, brought congratulations on behalf of Ray Danyluk, and said that the theme "reminded me of another 18-year-old, 20 years ago, a city gal who wanted to be a farmer. My father said I could be anything I wanted to be, but not a farmer, because I knew nothing about farms. Today I live on a quiet ranch. It's hard work but very rewarding." As a person who has made her dream happen, she urged the class to "hang on to your dream, and make it happen."

School Council chairman Darrell Younghans congratulated the graduands and their parents, and reminded the Class of '97 that "the edge of a dream doesn't mean living on the edge."

Arden Barstad, Marty Bendixen and Robby Laboucane presented gifts to Laverne Wilson, Cathy Botting, Lorne Young, Daleen Gunderson, Ms Durnin, Ms Garnier and grad advisor Marie Zayac, who said the class "has been a very, very interesting group... who have taught me a lot, mostly tolerance."

Lorne Young said he and his staff "probably didn't do everything we needed to, but we went a long ways. The students have put in a lot of effort to get ready to take on their dreams." He noted that "just when you achieve your dream, you've got another one. It's what keeps you going. Dreams don't stop, they carry on."

Daleen Gunderson returned to the microphone for a final salute to the class of '97, as they left the stage, singing "It's So Hard to say Goodbye."

The evening concluded with a grand march and dance.

Register now for READiscover Summer Reading Program!

By Michele Ducek
Librarian

In defiance of the weather, I planted a few things in pots for my balcony. This led to the discovery that if you keep the pots inside and your apartment's climate approximates that of equatorial Africa (very warm and humid), you can have lettuce sprouting in three days. I'm looking forward to reaping my small crops this summer.

Speaking of summer (nice segue!), the library is now accepting registrations for the READiscover Summer Reading Program. The cost is $1.00 per child and covers the whole program. To register your child or just find out what the library is up to this summer, stop by and talk to Karina. (She's the tall one.)

One thing I have to say about Elk Point, it appears to be a very good place to have and raise children. To help you with this very important task, we have What to Expect the First Year and What to Expect the Toddler Years by Arlene Eisenberg, Heidi H. Murkoff and E. Hathaway which continue from the very popular What to Expect When You're Expecting. Learn what will happen after the baby is born.

And new in Adult Fiction:

A fatal disease spread over Bajor and onto Deep Space Nine as Dr. Bashir struggles to find a cure in Wrath of the Prophets by Peter David, Michael Jan Freidman and Robert Greenberger.

A few recent arrivals in juvenile fiction include:

Lioness Rampant by Tamora Pierce is the fourth and final book in the Song of the Lioness series (I'm trying to get the other three). Alanna of Trebond has become the first female knight errant in Tortall and sets out on an impossible quest.

Amber's room is a mess, her homework is late and her mom is dating. She should get credit for trying to get her life in order in Amber Brown Wants Extra Credit by Paula Danziger.

Ace is an extraordinary pig who understands human language. He is determined to avoid being sent to market in Ace, the Very Important Pig by Dick King-Smith.

For the younger set we have these new picture books:

Franklin is ready to give up bike riding when all his friends take off their training wheels and he still needs them in Franklin Rides a Bike by Paulette Bourgeois and Brenda Clark.

Elmo's Lift - and - Peek Around the Corner Book by Anna Ross and Joe Mathieu has over 60 flaps inside kids can lift.

Although he snow season is over (touch wood), kids might want to get ready for next winter by checking out Snowboarding: A Complete Guide for Beginners by George Sullivan, an introduction to a very hot winter sport.
